

Girl Scouts of Northeast Georgia

Interactive Neighborhood for Kids, I.N.K. Brownie Try-It

INK strives, through the exhibits, to create a unique environment in which children of all ages, abilities, and experience can feel free to imagine, create, and explore beyond their dreams. INK provides a professional work environment that is challenging, rewarding, creative, and respectful of ideas and individuals.

The museum is based on a small town neighborhood design. It has displays dedicated to a:

Bank: where a child can pretend to work at a bank, be a customer, complete a bank transaction, count money

Grocery Store: where a child can pretend to shop for groceries, practice counting patterns, matching, learning food groups, be a cashier, bag groceries, organize the grocery store

Dentist Office: where a child can pretend to be a patient, nurse, doctor, mother, office person, take temperatures, read x-rays

Post Office: where a child can pretend to work in a post office, stamp letters, mail letters, packages

Train Station: where a child can pretend to be a conductor, passenger, ring the bell, play with the train display

Diner: where a child can pretend to be a customer, waitress, cook, cashier, create different cuisine, plan a party, go retro to the 50's with a poodle skirt

Library: where a child can pretend to be the librarian, pick out a book to read, arrange books by letter

Aviation: where a child can pretend to be a pilot, co-pilot, fly a plane, be a steward or stewardess, pretend to be on vacation

Music Station: where a child can pretend to be a musician, radio host, guest on a radio show.
